

Chinese Expulsion

The Legacy of Intolerance in Whatcom County

Mon., Nov. 8, 2010 — 7-9 pm

Fairhaven College Auditorium, WWU

Free and open to the public. Parking: Free in Lot C

Panel discussion and remembrance of the 125th anniversary of the mass expulsion of Chinese residents from Whatcom County. Panelists:

- Roger Gilman, Dean, Fairhaven College, Western Washington University
- Margaret Willson, International Director, Bahia Street, Seattle
- Jeff MacDonald, Immigrant and Refugee Community Organization (IRCO), Portland
- Paul Englesberg, College of Education and Leadership, Walden University.
- Tim Johnson, Editor, Cascadia Weekly
- Bettie Sing Luke, Project Chair of the Chinese Expulsion Remembrance Project (Seattle)
- Xinrong Lynch, President of the Chinese Cultural Association of Whatcom County
- Satpal Sidhu, Sikh Temple, Lynden

Baggage inspection at Sumas Station, circa 1890.

Photo courtesy Whatcom Museum

Sponsors: Human Rights Commemorative Project and FOOD CO OP

For more information: Paul Englesberg 360-380-2238 or John McGarrity 360-738-9695